The Trustees are looking for some volunteers to help with the mowing this summer. There is a sign up sheet on the buffet in the Narthex. They are asking that the lawn gets mowed weekly on Thursday, Friday or Saturday. The mower will be filled with gas prior to mowing, so you won't have to worry about that. Please message Heath Brown @ 340-0257, Chance Koetter @ 737-6850 or Barry Mooney @ 340-9694 when it is your week to mow. Thanks!

ADOPT-A-CHAPLAIN

The Rewards of Godliness

It's no secret that you can't bribe your way into heaven. No amount of good works will impress God enough to open heaven's door for their sake. "For the wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23) and the person who "keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it" (James 2:10). Rather, salvation is "the free gift of God ... in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 6:23).

So, your good works won't earn you the reward of heaven. But does that mean that there are no rewards at all? Consider what the Small Catechism says in the "Close of the Commandments":

What does God say about all these commandments?

He says, "I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments." (Ex. 20:5-6)

What does this mean?

God threatens to punish all who break these commandments. Therefore, we should fear His wrath and not do anything against them. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep these commandments. Therefore, we should also love and trust in Him and gladly do what He commands. (SC II)

God promises to bless you in keeping His commandments. What might these blessings be? Well, consider what Paul says about keeping the Fourth Commandment: "Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 'Honor your father and mother' (this is the first commandment with a promise), 'that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land'" (Eph. 6:1-3).

And think about what your life would be like if you went around stealing (breaking the Seventh Commandment), telling lies about people (breaking the Eighth Commandment), and generally being cruel to those around you (breaking all the commandments!). That is obviously not a blessed way to live. In fact, you'd be miserable living that way.

And Jesus says more about what is in store for those who make sacrifices for His sake: "Jesus said to them, 'Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of Man will sit on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for My name's sake, will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life'" (Matt. 19:28-29).

So don't grow impatient in doing good. Follow the Lord who has freely given you everlasting life.

PEACE TALK

Detour ahead! Oh, that dreaded orange sign that seems to pop up out of nowhere when traveling down the highway. It ultimately translates into slow traffic, a longer route than anticipated, and prolonged delays. Not something anyone is really prepared for, especially if travel time is a little tight that day. I know road repairs are necessary, but delays of driving around those plastic cones and construction equipment is not something I normally would include in my agenda for the day. Unprepared to take a different route can be quite stressful. The same can be true of the detours God gives us throughout our lifetime. Cruising along on life's highway and then suddenly that same sign appears... Detour ahead. Health issues, job loss, family conflicts, or many other life rerouting events, all factor in on where that new route will take us. Altering our original destination with delays of life changing situations that were possibly unprepared for. Lamenting to God about this direction we now must go... "I don't have time for this right now." Or "I don't want to take this new detour in my life." If you're like me, I have my goals set on a particular destination. Plans that seem to be working out just fine, then kaboom... just like that God has a detour in store for me. Can you relate? If so, you must remember that God knows what is best for you despite what you might have planned (Romans 8:28). Be rest assured you are not alone. There are many instances in the Bible where God put out a detour sign for someone who had a different destination in mind. Look at Moses, God led him on a 40-year detour for the greater good of the Israelites when their route otherwise could have been much quicker, (Joshua 5:6). Or Joseph who spent 13 years in slavery and prison before entering Pharaoh's service. Joseph was able to see God's design in the detour and didn't blame his brothers for what they did to him, (Genesis 37:12-28). Then there was Paul who was on the road to Damascus with his political agenda when God rerouted his destination to transform him into an Apostle, (Acts 9:1-19). God can and will alter our destination as well, leaving us with questions. Sending us a direction we don't think we are ready for at the time. However, we must place our trust in His gracious will of pointing us in the direction we must go, (Proverbs 3:5-6). Knowing that during those struggles with the detour's that life brings us... the Lord's purpose will prevail (Proverbs 19:21). Yes, it can seem like miles of orange cones with no end in sight. But be assured, that when you are through driving around those cones and construction equipment, it is God's guiding hand that is pointing the way. Guiding us to an eternal relationship with Him. Dear Lord, protect and guide me through the detours in my life and the ensuing roadblocks. Thank you for always being there and knowing what is best for me. Amen.
