CREATIVE PRESCHOOL

Dear Preschool Families,

Happy New Year! We hope that you all had a wonderful Christmas break and were able to spend family time with your loved ones.

We have a fun month of learning in store for January so please check your calendars for special days and remember that they are intended to be a fun addition to learning our letters!

Also, tax season is just around the corner, so here is the federal tax ID number for the preschool in case you need it for your taxes.

Peace Lutheran Church Creative Preschool ID #47-0431644

Don't forget that our website has monthly calendars and newsletters under each class' tab, so if you need an extra copy you can go to our website. The web address is: <http://plcmccook.org/creativepreschool.html>

We are excited to get back into the "swing of things!"

If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to call me at 345-2595 or email mycreativepreschool@gmail.com.

Thanks!

Kelsey and Dani

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod Stewardship Ministry Newsletter Article – January 2026

"And he who was seated on the throne said, 'Behold, I am making all things new. Also, He said, 'Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true'" (Revelation 21:5).

In January there is a great deal of "new" talk. Parties are held to ring in the "new" year. "New" year's resolutions are made to set a "new" course of life in the "new" year. There is date forgetfulness as checks and other forms are filled out without using the "new" year on the dateline.

We use all this "new" talk because there is very often so much wrong with the old in us. We think back to the "new" resolutions from the previous year that only lasted a few weeks. That "new" person did not shed any pounds and instead, picked up a few. The "new" habits of going to the gym were soon replaced by even more time on the couch binging on Netflix. The "new" person who does not lose their temper, use sarcasm as a lethal weapon and spend more money than necessary, but who worships, prays and serves the Lord and the neighbor, never seemed to stick around. We need "new" talk because the Old Adam is alive and well within every one of us.

But this promise of "new" is a matter of stewardship. It is the Lord Himself who makes the promise of all things being new. These words recorded by St. John are not pious wishes or hopeless promises. They do what they say. YOU, that one baptized into Jesus' death and resurrection, are NEW! These words are indeed trustworthy and true. This "new" comes to you in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It comes free of charge, even without our prayer.

This stewardship of "new" is not a vague, someday kind of stewardship either. You are NEW now! Forgiven. Reborn from above. The old is gone, nailed to Calvary's cross and buried and rotting in a tomb that was only borrowed by Jesus for His resurrection rest. The Gospel is what makes us NEW every morning. Remembering your baptism, you are new. Confessing your sins and receiving absolution makes you new. Hearing the Gospel filling your ears makes you new. Feasting on Christ's body and blood in the Holy Supper makes you new.

These mercies, totally undeserved as they are, are entrusted to us to steward TODAY even as we long for the Last Day. But we know how often we fail in this stewardship. We hoard God's creation as if it belongs to us. We belittle and devalue our neighbor because they look or sound or act in a way that we do not like. We seek to make the Holy Word of God softer and more palatable for those, or even ourselves, who refuse to confess sin as sin and repent. We value our comfort over truth, our reputation over faithfulness and our treasure over making sure that people get to hear of the Jesus who has done so much for the world and us.

We, as stewards of the Gospel, need to be made new every day. This is exactly what the Lord does. We failed in stewardship of the Gospel last year, so He gives us a new year. We failed in stewardship of the Gospel yesterday, and He gives us a new day. We failed in stewardship of the Gospel in the last few minutes, and yet in mercy our newness comes with each tick of the clock! Because that is how the Lord works.

As we see this working of all new things in us, it then calls us to be stewards of this newness to the world. This starts right in our own homes. It radiates out to our neighbors. It beams out from our congregations. This newness is teamed at the circuit, district and Synod levels all to shine the newness of the Gospel to those who need it.

Your new talk starts in the newness of the Gospel. Steward this treasure in this new year and this new day. It starts with a new you in Jesus. This is indeed trustworthy and true.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

We have a board on the wall in the narthex that we would like to use as a getting to know you spot for new members, and for members of St. John's, Ash Creek who have been attending here at Peace. Please email a photo of yourself, or your family, to office@plcmccook.org. Also, please let us know a little bit about you and your family, such as what town you reside in; the ages names and grade level of your child(ren); where you work; what your interests are. Please send this information along with your picture.

SUPER BOWL PREDICTION PARTY

There will be a youth Super Bowl prediction party during the Sunday School hour on January 11th. There will be a bible study about Keeping Jesus In Sports also.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Just a reminder that School of Religion will resume January 7th @ 6pm. We hope you have had a very blessed Christmas season.

ADOPT-A-CHAPLAIN

This program supports US military deployed overseas and the chaplains who care for them. In 2025, our group adopted 3 Iowa National Guard Chaplains who are deployed to the Middle East, and mailed care packages to each. Recently some of their soldiers were attacked in Syria, 2 were killed, others were injured. The Iowa National Guard and their families are saddened by the loss. The families are asking that we write letters or cards to the soldiers who remain in Syria and Iraq. Please write a note of encouragement and leave it in the labeled tubs by the church mailboxes or at Bob & Joann Nemechek's front door, 404 West 3rd street. The cards and letters will reach the soldiers by way of their chaplains. Supplies for the care packages are also needed. The Adopt a Chaplain care packages go out once a month, next packing day is Wed, January 14 at 1:00 pm.

TOOLS FOR STEWARDSHIP and EVANGELISM

SHUT INS

Please remember those who are unable to worship with us for one reason or another.

Hillcrest: Pam Leibbrandt, Ruth Woodhams, Karen Berry and Betty Harms.

Kinship Pointe: Lois Brown.

Highland Park: Harlan & Bernita Reiners and Ken Polly

Benkelman: Mark Cummins

ELDER VISITATION

In order to facilitate better connection between the church and members, the Elders are well into a program whereby they have been assigned specific sections of the city and make contact with all members within their assigned area. The purpose of these visits is to not only make contact, but also update contact information and discuss spiritual needs that our members may have. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Elders – Fritz Hubert, Brandon Kuykendall, Harold Carlson, Nick Nothnagel, Lee McConville, Russ Ankersen or Curt Swanhorst.

FOOD PANTRY

As discussed at a meeting, here are the items for Peace to place an emphasis on, by month. January – soup or stew, February – crackers, March – Mac & Cheese, April – canned meats, May – canned vegetables, June – flour & sugar, July— flour & sugar (again), August – Peanut butter, September – canned fruit, October – pork & beans, November – dry pasta, and December – beans. Of course all donations are welcome (like cake mixes, icing, condiments, etc.)

If you have an article, an announcement, pictures, etc... that you would like to submit for the "Tidings of Peace" newsletter, please bring it by the church office no later than the 4th Thursday of the month.

PEACE TALK

Have you ever gone up the down escalator? I recall undertaking this task in my youth, motivated by the desire to reach the top despite the difficulty involved. If you have ever tried or even thought about going up the down escalator, you might agree that it would take a lot of intentional steps. If you stop for even a moment, then you will soon find yourself back at the bottom. As I thought about going up this down escalator, I likened it to leading a Christian life. Too often people think being a Christian is like riding the escalator the proper way and gently stepping off when the next level is reached. Truth to be told however, it takes a lot of intentional steps along the way. Like going up the down escalator. The world in which we live begs for us to pause long enough to find ourselves back at the bottom again. To lead a Christian life, we must be intentional in our walk with God. 2 Peter 1:5-7 says, "Make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love." My friends, that is quite a few steps. How am I going to accomplish this task set before me? I'm not sure I can take that many steps to make it to the top... We cannot do it alone, so it might be best if we just take one step at a time. Start that first intentional step by studying God's Word (2 Timothy 3:16-17). Take the next step by praying (James 1:5). Remembering that we can turn to Jesus for strength when we feel like pausing (Philippians 4:13). Then, seeking encouraging support through a church community, by taking those steps together with fellow believers (Hebrews 10:24-25). Through faith then, each intentional step towards a Godly life will keep you and me on the rise against downward forces (Hebrews 12:1). Best of all, it gives us the assurance that Jesus is with us every step of the way. Knowing He is there during each pause in our spiritual walk, when we start drifting the wrong way. With this confidence, there will be a sense of accomplishment found in each small step. Each step forward then, becomes a victory worth celebrating knowing He is there (Matthew 28:20). Consider identifying strategies today to thoughtfully enhance and supplement your faith. Then you will find that going up the down escalator will become effortless when you are filled with the kindness and love of God. And when the downward forces of the world darken your day, the light found in Jesus' love will fill your heart with joy knowing He will take you to the next level. Dear Jesus, help me to live my life according to your ways and give me the courage to walk up the down escalator. Amen.

Peace, Love, and Unity
